

Characteristics of an Oquirrh Mountain Eagle

Scholarship

Knowledge:

A knowledgeable person has a mastery of facts and resources prerequisite for educational progression and successful performance of life's tasks.

Intelligence:

An intelligent person applies knowledge and strategy to solve everyday problems.

Resourceful:

A resourceful person thinks creatively and executes original ideas using available means.

Critical Thinking:

A critical thinker looks at the world with curiosity then explores and finds answers.

Quality:

A person who values quality constantly puts forth their best work--meeting and/or exceeding the basic standards.

Improvement:

A person demonstrates improvement when they continually set challenging goals and pursue them diligently.

Organization:

An organized person is prepared with proper tools to complete tasks in an orderly fashion.

Citizenship

Work Ethic:

A person with good work ethic is punctual, prepared, and fulfills their responsibilities without complaining.

Teamwork:

A person who works productively and positively with others to accomplish a common goal.

Honor:

An honorable person exhibits virtuous conduct, reflecting the willingness to perform their duties with no desire for reward.

Respect:

A respectful person shows sympathy, empathy, charity, and compassion towards themselves, all others, and their surroundings.

Leadership:

A leader is willing and ready to make decisions and guide justly.

Friendship:

A friendly person serves and shows kindness to others.

Communication:

An effective communicator shares their thoughts, ideas, and feelings through common standards of reading, writing, speaking, and listening.

Moral Excellence

Diligence:

A diligent person persistently applies themselves to a task until completion.

Integrity:

A person with Integrity is honest and true to their convictions in deeds and thoughts.

Commitment:

A person who makes a commitment decides what they are going to do and remains loyal to the end.

Compassion:

A compassionate person shows sympathy and empathy towards others, with the desire to listen and serve.

Aesthetics:

A person who values aesthetics appreciates and maintains the beauty of oneself and one's surroundings.

Reflection:

A reflective person thinks about past decisions, learns from mistakes and successes in order to improve.

Selflessness:

A selfless person makes personal sacrifices for the benefit of others.